Dear Mr. Hoth:

Your application for acceptance of wildlife guards has been brought to the attention of Technical Standards Committee "A" (Electric).

The Committee found your models TGB-50007, TGB-65010, and TGB-82512 wildlife guards to be acceptable on a conditional basis. The TGB-50007, TGB-65010, and TGB-82512 wildlife guards will appear on page rp(1) of the Rural Utilities Service (RUS) Conditional List of Materials as follows:

Manufacturer	Conditions
Universal Thermography, Inc. TGB-50007 Bushing Cover TGB-65010 Bushing Cover TGB-82512 Bushing Cover	To obtain experience.

NOTE: The material composition of these items does not contain a flame-retardant unless specified by the manufacturer.

This acceptance does not relieve the manufacturer of any responsibility for the satisfactory performance of the item and its conformity to guarantees, specifications, or other provisions of contracts covering its sale. This acceptance is made with the further understanding that no changes in design or workmanship affecting the quality, strength, or electrical characteristics of the item will be made without the knowledge of the Technical Standards Committees. You are also asked to notify the Technical Standards Committees of any change in manufacturing plant location or locations.

A representative list should be kept of RUS borrowers purchasing these wildlife guards. This information will be needed at the time you apply for full acceptance after the trial period. The selection of conditionally accepted materials and equipment is at the option of the RUS borrower.
